

ACCOUNTING

ASSOCIATE OF APPLIED SCIENCE
62 CREDITS

Accounting establishes a strong foundation for seamless transfer to bachelor's degree programs in Accounting or related fields. Simultaneously, it equips students with advanced skills and knowledge in accounting and business, preparing them for immediate employment in a diverse range of businesses. Regardless of the path chosen, this program will ensure you are fully prepared for success.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

- Public/Private Accounting
- Bookkeeping
- Budgeting
- Financial Statement Preparation/Analysis
- Products Costing
- Technology Services/Designing Accounting Systems
- Payroll Specialist
- Federal Tax Return Preparation and Advice
- Inventory Specialist/Analyst
- Accounts Payable and Receivable Specialist

KEY COURSES

- Accounting Principles
- Payroll Accounting
- Intermediate Accounting
- Automated Accounting
- Managerial Accounting
- Federal Taxation of Individuals

WE ARE ACCREDITED.

Penn Highlands is accredited by the Middle States Commission on Higher Education. This means you will receive the same quality of education as major four-year institutions in our area.

WE ARE FAMILY.

Our supportive staff and faculty are here for you. We are available to listen, offer advice, and provide support to help you succeed. With an 18:1 student-to-faculty ratio, the hands-on support you will receive feels like family.

DISCOVER MORE ABOUT THIS PROGRAM.

